

AN EDITION OF | The San Diego Union-Tribune

WEEK OF JUNE 22-30, 2016

DISCOVER

discover.sdc.com

FREE

BREW TIME

A DIY APPROACH TO MAKING YOUR OWN BEER. 10

"Macbeth" is now playing under the stars at The Globe. Details on page 2

8

JUNE 23, 2016

The 15 most anticipated new restaurants of the summer

New eateries will open their doors between June and October

BY PAM KRAGEN

Dozens of new restaurants will open around the county in the coming months. Here's a look at 15 we're excited about.

Ambrogio 15, Pacific Beach

Later this summer, three Milanese natives will open this gourmet pizzeria in the former Table 926 space. The restaurant, billed as the "Milano Pizza Experience," will serve Southern Italian-style with thin crust made from imported Italian flour. 926 Turquoise St.

Barbusa, Little Italy

This new eatery soft-opened over the weekend. The modern

BASILE STUDIO

An artist's rendering of CH Properties' next major restaurant project, Born & Raised, opens later this summer in Little Italy.

The Wellington, Mission Hills

On Sunday, this 6-year-old dark-paneled beef-centric restaurant closed for reimagining. Later this summer, it will reopen with a fresh, bar-focused space, garden-inspired cocktails and a locally sourced small plates menu. 729 W. Washington St. (619) 295-6001 or thewellingtonsd.com